Volume 13: December 2008

No events this month—

*Please keep in mind that I can travel for seminars—so if you have family and friends in other cities that are looking for speakers—let them know about me!

*I offer gift certificates for all of my services—if your hubby or loved one needs me. I can mail you one for you to wrap up!

May each of you have a blessed Holiday season!

Fashion Tips

- Now that it is warmer—remember to wear your Spanxx over your hose.
- If you are wearing knits and need to wear Spanxx, get out your slips— they will help your dress not be too clingy on your hips.
- Think about sharing your dressy outfits with friends of similar size. It's a great way to save money!
- Wearing hose with peep toe shoes is fine. Hosiery is needed when it is cold outside!
- Check the status of your cocktail bags. Make sure they are in good condition and see if you need to add some for the holidays.
